EDIFICIO IN AMPLIAMENTO

This architectural drawing shows the facade of a multi-story building. The central portion features a grid of windows, with some units having balconies. To the right, a section of the building has a sloped roof and a series of small, square windows. The drawing is framed by a thick black line, and a dark, irregular shape on the left represents the ground or a shadow.
